Cumberland Valley National Bank & Trust Welcomes Drew Alexander as Assistant Vice President, Commercial Lender

London, KY — Cumberland Valley National Bank & Trust (CVNB) is excited to announce the addition of Drew Alexander as Assistant Vice President, Commercial Lender in its Richmond Market. In this role, Drew will work with business clients to provide customized lending solutions and help strengthen CVNB's commercial banking presence in Madison County.

A lifelong resident of Richmond, Drew is a graduate of Madison Central High School and earned his degree in Risk Management from Eastern Kentucky University, where he also played golf for four years. Drew and his wife, Emily, who teaches at Madison Southern High School, recently celebrated 20 years of marriage. They have three children—Wesley (17), Lainey (15), and Beau (8).

"Drew's local roots, combined with his experience and commitment to relationships, make him a great addition to our lending team," said Elmo Lee Greer, Chairman, President, and CEO. "We are proud to welcome him to CVNB and look forward to the impact he will have on our clients and our community."

Drew shared his excitement for the role, saying, "I am thrilled to be a part of the CVNB family and to work with a team that values relationships and community as much as I do."
